

COMPLEX DESIGN OF GIRDERS FROM ADVANCED CONCRETES

is co-financed by the European Union

The project is focused on the proposal of girders, whose height is maximally reduced. For their production, newly developed advanced concrete (high performance concrete, alkali-activated concrete and concrete with hybrid binders) is used.

EUROPEAN UNION

European Regional Development Fund

Operational Programme Enterprise

and Innovations for Competitiveness